

Mahesh Chavda
November, 1994

A Vision for Canada

Behold, Canada, your destiny. You are My bridge builder for my visitation to many nations.

Because you have chosen to be humble and unassuming, not plagued with selfish ambition or impressed with your own grandeur, I will be able to do much with you. Canada I speak to your heart for My Church is My heart in Canada. Do not be discouraged or disheartened. The enemy may come in various guises to create mischief and to dishearten but the Lord says, I am with you.

Don't fight the negative. Don't focus on what the enemy does or he devises. Focus on My glory for I intend to take you from glory to glory. I chose to pour myself out, and I will pour, and I will pour, and I will pour, and I will pour Myself upon you.

O Canada, My glory will heal the wounds, My glory will heal any divisions. Be therefore My Bride, My army. I will raise up an nation of healers; an army full of gifts of My gifts of mercy to the nations. Be My joy-bearers, My prophets who will pour out my oil and anoint Canada for it's end-time destiny. You will indeed be a bridge builder to my end-time anointing and My glory to the nations says the Lord.