Canada Ablaze

I see a wave sweeping across this land. For in days gone by there have been moves of the Spirit that have been limited within local churches, but this wave shall go far beyond the walls of the church. It shall go into the marketplaces, it shall go into the schools, it shall go into the universities, it shall go into places of business, it shall go into prison systems, it shall go into the government! Ha, Ha!

Get ready, get ready! Get ready, get ready, get ready, get ready! I see Canada on fire; I see Canada ablaze! I see Canada burning with the glory of God! Get ready, get ready, get ready, get ready!

This move of the Spirit of God shall come from Heaven. Now there will be those within the religious sector because it did not happen the way they thought it should, and because they can not control it, and because they could not put their finger upon it they will oppose it. But do not fear of be dismayed, for the wind of heaven shall blow upon this land and the fire of God shall fall. A great harvest shall be reaped and there shall be whole regions shaken by the fire and glory of heaven! Get ready, get ready, get ready, get ready, hallelujah!!

The plans of the enemy will be stayed for a season. The plan of the wicked one will be thwarted! Get ready, get ready, get ready, get ready, for he has saved the best wine for last! Hallelujah, glory to God.
