Days of Mercy

[Referring to the prophecy given last year about the 18 month window of opportunity] I did say an 18 month window, but kind of what happens with some of this is that you see to a certain point in time, as 1 Cor 13 says, we see in part, we know in part and we prophesy in part. It doesn't mean that what you are prophesying is wrong, but that it is limited up to this point in time, but then you see more. As the word says that it is a light to our feet and a lamp to our path-sometimes you only see the next step.

But I did speak an 18 month window, that you have to seize the moment- well I believe that that has happened. But right now my sense is that this door of opportunity has been opened, and I see the realm of mercy being extended to the nation of Canada for a 3 year period. But we've got to (and I'm saying we, because I'm partnering with you), we have to seize the moment in the nation of Canada, specifically the next 3 years.

This will help determine the next 7 years after that, because the Lord doesn't want this to be a moment of mercy, he wants this to be a decade of mercy, and restoration and transformation. But it starts with a revelation of mercy and then that's going to lead toward progressive steps. Okay so I see a window of opportunity that is 3 years long, it feels like the present governmental leaders who have now been put in place, Prime Minister Stephen Harper and others along with him because there is are appointments of righteousness that are occurring.

I just don't know a lot, but I feel there are right appointments that are being made. This is so critical, because it's not only necessary to pray to seize the moment, for the right person to be put in power but then you need to continue in prayer and in dialogue and interaction that they seize their moment of why they were put in and a lot of that is to do with the appointments that they make. And my sense is that there are righteous appointments, like cabinet positions and such that are being made that are actually going to make a difference for the next three years. Some would say it's 2, but I believe it's a 3 year window of opportunity.

There is going to be this February/March time 3 years from now, even January to March, a governmental time when the shift happens. So there is this 3 year window of mercy that has been given to this country, and there is going to be this underground movement where conservatism is going to be well received, where in the past it was like the ugly stepchild.

There is going to be this shift and now it going to begin to happen. You have to watch out for something though, because a liberal people (I mean left oriented politically), they will try to adapt terminology to pick up family value language which is actually an adaptation of deception. And while they will still try to bring across an homosexual agenda, but in a wrong presentation. So don't buy into that- lift the rug and see what's under it. Because the enemy is really trying to come into Canada and re-write the laws. This comes from the book of Daniel and the anti-Christ spirit, he wants to change the seasons and re-write the laws. But now we have the opportunity to bring reversal of some decrees, particularly concerning the marriage amendment, and pray and do not give up until there is a reversal. Because Canada is like a lead domino at this time in the nations and the nations are looking to Canada in this issue. Whether it's all across Europe, or the United States, or other nations, they are looking to Canada. Canada is taking the lead right now.

There is like a forerunner anointing and it is upon the nation of Canada right now. And so again I say to you- for the US's sake, seize your moment, for family value's sake for the Kingdom's sake, for Jesus sake take your place. For whatever reason there is a regal, royal anointing that is upon Canada that is to rule, to rule. I'm talking about in the place of prayer. To rule in the midst of your enemies.

So I believe that ruling and reigning, in fact there is going to be a whole lot in the church world the word kingdom. There is going to be kingdom teaching, this isn't just for Canada, this is a big shift in the Body of Christ at large. We are moving from a Church Age to a Kingdom Age. So we are moving from being well taught and well fed to being forced out to do things.

Now in Edmonton I think what you have is the world's largest or one of the world's largest shopping malls. But that picture of that mall in Edmonton as it is in the natural, so the Lord wants it to be in the spiritual. What it is it's going to be prophetic evangelism. Prophetic evangelism teams, some way or another, I don't know what it's going to be but some way or another there is going to be some event that takes place in Edmonton, and there are going to be teams of people that come together from all parts of Canada, and actually from around the world and it's going to be a big mall that is going to take place, with a lot of small venues, and it's going to be prophetic evangelism. I tell you there is going to be an explosion of prophetic evangelism, particularly in Edmonton.

In Calgary it's favour. Favour is resting on Calgary right now, and I'm going to use an old word, from the US, it's going to be a gold rush like in California, San Francisco and then in Alaska. Well, there is going to be a gold rush in Calgary. Now maybe the lure is going to be gold-I don't know about that- but it feels like favour and prospering.

Calgary has made a big shift economically and it's going to continue for these next 2- plus 3 years. People are going to be congregating from around the world and going to Calgary because there is an entrepreneur, a forerunning entrepreneur anointing that rests regionally on that area. People are going to be gathering from around the world, and they are going to come to Calgary, it's going to be a new gold rush. Now in that though it is also going to expose greed, and there's going to be a lot of stuff that the church world has to be aware of. But it's a gold rush, I felt it as soon as I landed in the airport. As soon as I landed there, just yesterday there is a gold rush on Calgary. And there is something of a new invention that is going to come to the oil industry that is going to revolutionize it. Very shortly it is going to be coming, it is going to have some resistance but some vehicles that maybe they got 20 miles per gallon, they are going to end up doubling. It's not just ethanol, it's something that is coming, some new creative thing, and there is going to be a doubling of the gas mileage. It's going to find this centre in Calgary and it's going to be a gold rush.

Now this is a forerunning anointing, though it's for the province of Alberta, and this is going to spread- I'm talking transformation. So Alberta in the area of prospering is going to carry a forerunning anointing upon it to spread to the other provinces. So those of you in Calgary, or Edmonton or Lethbridge or where ever you are at, or Sylvan Lake and those in Red Deer I just want to say to you this is not just about your region. This is about being a good steward of the forerunner, it's a prophetic anointing, it's a forerunner, prophetic anointing that rests upon the province of Alberta. Be a good steward of this and do not just hoard it unto yourself, be a transformer, a transmitter of this anointing into other regions.

And the Chinese in particular are going to be affected by this. There is going to be an intermarriage between some things that happen in Hong Kong in particular and what happens in this region. There will be some good partnering and merging type business activity and it's going to head over into Vancouver and again I saw this about a year ago, there is going to be a whole community in Vancouver of Chinese people that is going to have a full-blown visitation of the Holy Spirit.

He is going to fall in a whole region of Vancouver and there is going to be a fire by night that is going to hit the city of Vancouver in a region. Particularly the Chinese people but its not just for them, that then is going to go from there into China itself and there are going to be missionaries that carry the fire of the Holy Spirit that hits this region of Vancouver, and they are going to go back into Mainland China and there is going to be an international fire exchange that's going to be happening.

So I see this gold rush, I see this 3 year opportunity of change, of transformation for the nation and there is just some really great things happening.

Dick Dewert;[shares about the viability of the oil sands in Alberta because of the rise in oil prices to confirm this word.] Even this government has said some things about redress, for some of the historic wrongs against the Asian community.

Jim Goll: This is going to be highly significant. There is going to be now in Canada, as there has been a spiritual identificational repentance movement or you could use the word reconciliation, that has been occurring for many years in a slow, methodical, building up steam (wondering if it's made any difference or not) but it has. And now it's going to go into the secular arena, a reconciliation movement in the nation. It's not just only going to be the First Nations but it's going to hit other people groups from other periods of war in particular, where there was prejudice that was brought against them and there is going to be the restoration of honour. Dignity and honour, but honour is the big key word. It's the restoring of honour.
