A Distinct Nation

To Canada in general I heard the Lord say, "You are a nation, a sovereign nation, separate but distinct from England, France and America. You have a unique DNA, you are different. But know this, you are brothers, by blood and by covenant with these other nations. In the days ahead, days of turmoil and upheaval, a distinction shall be made between you and your brothers." [This goes back to a word I had in 1999 in Fulton NY that showed a huge glass wall standing between the USA and Canada, the Lord said back then that he would divide the judgments against the two nations for they were different].
