Fathers in the River -Dream

I am standing on the banks of a powerful river. (River of Life)

Bob Jones appears on the riverbank on the opposite side. So, we have this rushing, loud river in between us.

He shouts over the sound of the waters to me, " Find the fathers in the river!"

I then look over the river ...up river & down river, but can see only how incredibly fast the current is moving. So I shout back, "I don't see any fathers."

He shouts back, " yes...it is true. There are many teachers, but not many fathers.

But there are surely fathers in this river, they've been dwelling in the deep."

End.

I woke up with a sense there is about to emerge a revealing of more mature, strong spiritual fathers (and mothers) with an current anointing for these days. It will be those who have been abiding in the depths of the spirit & have been in hidden preparation...apostolic fathers, prophetic fathers, building & planting anointings, discipling anointing.
